

THE BOTANICAL ROOMS

Our gardeners gather the finest fresh ingredients from the estate. The butchers prepare choice cuts from our British White beef, the most ancient of heritage breeds, and we take our pick from the catch of the day at West Country ports. Native Tamworth pork is reared just a stone's throw from the estate, and we forage the woodland and hedgerows for fleeting delights.

As the seasons change, so our menu evolves. Ripe, seasonal bounty is woven seamlessly through The Botanical Rooms with passion and tenderness by Head Chef Ben Champkin and his joyful team of chefs.

Food cooked simply and beautifully, full of heart and soul.
